

RESOURCES

- BMSG book on framing child care
- OPR document (State Planning Guidelines)
- Fire Marshal's Guidelines
- CA Chapter of America Planning Association (the national meeting will be in San Francisco next year with 6,000 attendees!)
- Riverside County's gaming compact mentions child care
- Solano County has scope of work language to require developers to oversee child care operations for ten years
- CDBG
- City of San Francisco child care loan programs
- Lenders for community development
- LINCC tool kit for child care development for targeted agencies
- Workshops and/or trainings for the Bay Area. Suggested Topics:
 - Starting a business, business plans, growing a business, understanding types of funding
- RDA funds
- Commitment from the public sector, such as fee waivers and supportive grants
- Leveraging existing resources, and collateralizing property
- First Five, local and state: Grant programs, policies, applications, etc.
- Intellectual resources: Be creative and think outside of the box
- Alternative organizations willing to step up to support child care, such as HUD, non-profits, affordable housing agencies
- A shift in perception, seeing child care as integral to community development
- Creating tools, training and support groups to assist providers in learning about zoning, planning, and general child care issues.
- Community Colleges
- Interdisciplinary Spatial Information System (ISIS Center)
- Mapping of CEL information and data using GPS technology
- california-childcare-coordinators.org
- Building Child Care (BCC)
- Child Care Partnership Project
- The book Child Care Center Design
- EIRs of Santa Clara, Orange, and Alameda counties
- Local Planning Councils
- Mission Economic Development Association—Bus Assistance to Family Child Care
- 4C Programs: Business of Family Child Care, Business Planning, Business Training, Curriculum Training, Sample Budgets.
- Developer Fee Examples: City of San Mateo, City of South San Francisco
- Alameda Land Use Guide
- The book Redwood City
- Ventura County's Guide for Planners
- Human Service Agency, South Mateo County
- Mercy Housing of the Solano project
- Low income housing tax credit
- Title 1
- Even Start
- Child care tax credit
- www.frbsf.org
- www.bmsg.org: Contains a message development guide for ECE advocates; research on how child care is covered in the news; media advocacy tips